

What's the thing to do about clothes for spring?

Every man knows that clothes are high priced; and that poor ones cost about as much as the good ones.

What's a man going to do who wants to make his money go the farthest?

There's only one thing to do; buy good all-wool clothes; pay the price to get them. They save your money because all-wool wears longer; you won't have to buy often. We know; we've seen all kind of clo'ing. Good stuff is always economy.

Hart Schaffner & Marx makes clothes that really save for you; that's why we have them and why we talk so much about these clothes.

If they don't satisfy you you get your money back.

and gladness, and anxiously awaiting to be shown the place where the eggs were hidden. After many interesting games were indulged in, they were directed to the pasture where the hunt was begun. It was interesting to watch them, especially the smaller ones, in their determined effort to find one of the pretty eggs. There were only a few who failed to find an egg, but nevertheless they seemed to enjoy it just the same as if they had. Prizes were awarded to little Paula Draper and Ben Jackson for finding the prize eggs.

The members of the Parent-Teacher Association will present "The Pink Tea" at the school auditorium Friday night, April 9. Don't fail to see this play, you will miss a treat if you do.

The fishing club, which was recently organized here, received their tents and other equipments Tuesday. They are getting everything in readiness for a week at the Roaring river mill-dam, as soon as the water gets back to a fishing stage. The club is composed of about 21 members, mostly business and professional men of Gainesboro.

G. C. Huffines, the popular traveling salesman for Phillips Traveling Co., Nashville, was in town Tuesday. Gene bought a Ford roadster while here, and says he is going after the trade this summer. His idea is to beat the other fellow to it.

Easter was a pleasant day here, but Monday had the appearance of an old-time winter day. Snow fell all thru the day.

Sheriff Spurlin swooped a gang of "bone" shakers over Young & Co's store last Friday. There were eight or ten in the game, all of who submitted before Recorder, H. Grady Gore, who assessed a fine of $2.50 each. Boys, gambling is a mighty low calling. Don't ever be guilty of such any more. Remember that the man or boy who follows the gambling business nearly always comes out looser—financially, morally and socially.
